Caen is a city on a human scale with a wide range of attractions: a marina in centre of the city, vast green spaces, famous gastronomy, dynamic night life (35,000 students), a rich cultural provision and remarkable architectural heritage.

The Place Saint Sauveur.

Caen la mer, in Normandy, your ideal business destination!

Just two hours from Paris, Caen la mer is a dynamic, multi-faceted and attractive region with over 280,000 inhabitants. Caen la mer has a large number of attractions for visitors: the regional capital, Caen, founded by William the Conqueror in the 11th century, seaside resorts from Ouistreham Riva-Bella to Lion-sur-Mer, 10 kilometres of fine sandy beaches, two marinas, a cross-Channel port, the Orne Estuary Nature Reserve and Sword Beach, one of the five D-Day landings beaches, famous gastronomy and a wide range of sports and cultural activities...

The international reputation of the region, at the heart of Normandy, is outstanding, resulting from events that are now part of world history, such as the foundation of Normandy by the Vikings, the Norman conquest of England by William the Conqueror and D-Day.

Caen la mer boasts an exceptional, central position for accessing the rest of Normandy.

Strongly attached to its values, Caen la mer is a city that will always leave visitors the freedom to make their own choices – which are vast, since the city has everything!
